My name is Jack. I live in a small village in England. Our village is very beautiful and I love living here. I am a farmer, and I work on a farm. There are many gardens and fields in my village. People keep animals on their farms and they work very hard.

We wake up early in the morning, around ۶:۰۰, and we go to work. We work hard until noon. At noon, we eat lunch at work, and after that we work again.

The services here are not OK. We do not have banks or ATMs. There is no Internet, and you cannot send an email. There are no taxis. We ride our horses to go to work, and sometimes we walk to work. But we have a happy life here.

We sometimes see our friends on their farms. They are farmers, too. We talk about many things and have a good time.

In spring and summer, many tourists come to visit our beautiful village and take pictures here. And some people come to visit their relatives here.
