In the ۱۸th century, long before books, radios and TV sets existed, many people learned a language different from their own. In a world full of printed and spoken words, today people have a better chance to learn language. Many people learn languages because language is the most useful tool for communication.

It lets us think, learn, and share our thoughts and feelings with others. Moreover, it makes man free from his anger; and finally it is a source of comfort or delight.

Language is important because it is alive, it grows and changes like a living organism. Language can influence a single human being or move a million in a one moment. ( S, H, ۸۶)

۵ Studies show that rapid increase in population growth creates problems for developing countries. So why don't people have fewer children? The information collected from developed countries suggests that it is only when people's living standards begin to rise , birth rates begin to fall. There are good reasons for this. Poor countries cannot afford social services and old age pensions _ the money they get from the government when they become old and can't work _ and people's incomes are so low that they have nothing to save for their future. As a result, people look to their children to provide them with financial help in their old age.

Having a large family can be a form of insurance. And even while they are still quite young, children can do a lot of useful jobs on a small farm. So poor people in a developing country need to see clear signs of much better conditions ahead before they can think of having smaller families. But their conditions cannot be improved unless there is a decrease in the rate at which population is increasing. This will depend on a very much wider acceptance of family planning and this, in turn, will mean basic changes in people's ideas.

۵۲. According to the writer, people in poor countries have a lot of children mainly because .....

- a) they receive government support for every child.
- b) they rely on them for support during their old age.
- c) methods of family planning are not being practiced in those countries
- d) they usually become involved in factories, which makes it easier for them to get food.

۵۳. The writer mentions that , before deciding upon family planning,.....

- a) people in poor countries should be moved to urban areas.
- b) governments of poor countries should change people's income and ideas.
- c) governments of developing countries must forbid parents to use child labor on farms
- d) developed countries should help developing ones to improve their standards of living.

۵۴. The word they in line ۸ refers to.....

- a) parents
- b) people
- c) family
- d) children
